

Making Spirit Led Decisions in Life.

What decision are you facing? _____

(Honestly answer as many as possible)

1. Does this decision draw me closer to God or away from Him?

- Will this strengthen or weaken my prayer life, purity, walk with God and fellowship?
- Is this choice leading toward life or toward spiritual drift? (Romans 8:6)
- Would I make this same decision if Jesus visibly stood beside me? (Colossians 3:17)

2. What voices are influencing me to make this decision?

- God's Word?
- The Holy Spirit?
- Our culture and social pressure?
- Fear?
- Pride?
- Fleshly desire? (Romans 8:5-6)
- Am I ignoring convictions, or godly counsel? (Proverbs 11:14)
- Does this decision create peace from God or does it create pressure, confusion, secrecy, and unrest? (1 Corinthians 14:33)

3. Am I genuinely seeking God's will or trying to justify what I want? (Proverbs 3:5-6)

- Is there any hidden compromise, temptation, or deception connected to this decision? (James 1:13-15)
- Am I making this choice based on temporary feelings or eternal values?
- Have I truly prayed and surrendered this decision to God or have I already decided?

4. What direction will this choice take my life in six months or even five years?

- What fruit could this produce in my life, marriage, ministry, finances, or testimony? (Matthew 7:16-20)
- If everyone followed my example in this area, would it lead them closer to Christ?

5. Would I be comfortable if trusted spiritual leaders or my family knew the details of this decision?

- Is this decision consistent with the character and convictions I claim to live by?

6. What have I learned from this experience?
